A paçoca tradicional do Vale

In the lower portion of the image, there are three dark brown silhouettes of sheep grazing in a field. The field is represented by dark, vertical lines suggesting grass. The background behind the sheep consists of rolling hills in shades of orange and yellow, matching the overall color scheme.
